ROOSEVELT FAVORS RECALL

(Associated Press Cable.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Following an address made by Theodore Roosevelt this evening, it is now believed that the former President will eventually declare himself in full accord with the progressive wing of the Republican party, and opposed to President Taft, as leader of the conservatives.

The ex-President during his speech emphasized the principle that the people should control the judiciary as well as other branches of government, which is in direct opposition to the belief of President Taft.

Right to Legislate.
Colonel Roosevelt also insisted upon the right of the people to enact legislation regulating the employment of children, thus doing away with a menace to the citizenship of the country.

He also spoke at length upon the necessity for an employers' liability law, and reviewed the efforts which had been made to enforce such an act legally. His address has caused something of a sensation.

Taft Will Fight Trusts.
NEWCASTLE, Wyo., Oct. 20.—In a forceful address before a large gathering here this evening, President Taft made an emphatic declaration that he proposes to enforce the Sherman anti-trust laws regardless of any opposition which may develop.

NORTHERN PROVINCES WILL SOON JOIN REVOLUTIONISTS

PEKING, Oct. 20.—The defeat of the imperialist forces by the rebels before Hankow is more complete than was at first given out, and it is now certain that the government has withdrawn news of the disaster to the Manchus arms.

It is asserted that a complete demoralization of the imperial army will follow the arrival of the fugitives from the battle at Shingachow, where the main army is converging.

More Provinces May Rise in Arms.

Members of the legations in this city who are in close touch with conditions throughout Central China assert that more than one province south of the Yangtze-Kiang and some north of it may now be expected to join the rebel cause.

Officials of the government do not hide their anxiety and acknowledge the seriousness of the conditions confronting the authorities, especially as regards the provinces of Honan and Changsha, north of the Yangtze-Kiang. Lured imperialists southward.

Refugees from the revolutionary zone who arrived here today state that the rebels were luring the imperial army to the southward, away from their base, preparatory to a general rising in the northern provinces.

Thousands of Chinese in this district are awaiting the results of the first battles with the avowed purpose of joining the victors, although the sympathy is with the rebels.

Banks Suspended.
Since the seriousness of the revolution has become apparent, there has taken place a financial stringency and several banks have suspended.

Almost all trade activities have ceased, and it is believed that thousands of Chinese, thrown out of work, will eventually join the rebel army.

Will Wounded in Retaliation.
HANKOW, Oct. 20.—Members of the Chinese Red Cross service, which was organized here just before the recent battle by Dr. McWille, an American missionary, were killed by the imperialists during the fighting while engaged in their service for the wounded of both sides.

After the battle the enraged revolutionary troops killed the wounded imperialists and mutilated their bodies in a horrible manner in retaliation for the wanton killing of the Red Cross nurses.

Rebel Victory is Complete.
The battle near here has ended in complete victory for the rebels. The royalists are retreating to the north. The imperial warships have gone down the river. The rebels, reinforced, are preparing for a night attack and eight thousand men are advancing on the new royalist camp.

PORTLAND PLAYERS WIN LEAGUE PENNANT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 20.—The Portland, Ore., team of the West Coast Baseball League is winner of the league championship pennant for the season of 1911.

Judge Graham has resigned as president of the league, and it is believed that Al. Baum, a sporting writer on the Coast papers, will succeed him. A session of baseball magnates will be held here in a few days.
